Introduction

Micheldever & Stratton Preschool acknowledges the following definition of bullying as 'the act of intentionally causing harm to others through verbal harassment, physical assault or more subtle means of coercion such as manipulation. It involves an imbalance of power because of the negative effect on the victim.'

Bullying of any type – verbal, social, physical, racial or emotional – will not be tolerated.

Procedure

This policy outlines the procedures that will be followed if any incident of bullying by a staff member, student, parent/carer, visitor or child occurs.

The anti-bullying policy will be discussed with members of staff during the induction process.

The policy and any issues that may arise due to bullying will be discussed at least annually at staff meetings.

All parents/carers, staff, students and volunteers will be aware of this policy.

Guidelines:

1. When bullying by a staff member occurs and a complaint is made the matter will be dealt with immediately by the Manager and a member of the committee.
2. The perpetrator of the bullying may be subject to disciplinary action. The victim will be offered support.
3. When bullying occurs by a child, the matter will be dealt with immediately. Any incidents must be reported in the room incident book and the parents of both victim and perpetrator informed of what has taken place.
4. A member of staff will talk to the child who was bullying and explain what was wrong with their behaviour and why in a manner that is appropriate to the age and stage of development of the child. They should be encouraged to apologise to the victim.

5. If this behaviour continues over a period of time the member of staff responsible for behaviour management issues should be consulted for advice and guidance.
